

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION GIFTED EDUCATION MONTH

- WHEREAS: Our children are one of our state's greatest resources. Georgia strives to meet the scholastic needs of all its citizens by providing quality educational programs; and
- WHEREAS: Education should foster the development of recognized potential in the areas of mental ability, creativity, academics, motivation, leadership, and visual and performing arts; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Georgia and its education systems play a key role in finding, maintaining, and furthering these unique human resources; and
- WHEREAS: Georgia is blessed with tens of thousands of gifted and talented children whose full potential can be tapped only through the farsighted cooperation of educators, community members, and government leaders; and
- WHEREAS: Gifted students in Georgia provide our state with a vast potential resource for leadership in all areas of our society. Maximum development of each individual's intellectual and creative powers insures the challenges of the future will be more ably met; now
- THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim January 2014 as GIFTED EDUCATION MONTH in Georgia and call upon our citizens to join in recognizing the needs of our gifted young people.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 2nd day of January in the year of our Lord two thousand fourteen.
