

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

SEVERE WEATHER PREPAREDNESS WEEK

- WHEREAS: Each year Georgians face the threat of severe weather events such as lightning, thunderstorms, floods, hailstorms, tornadoes, hurricanes, and various winter storms, all potentially dangerous to life, health, and property; and
- WHEREAS: Urbanization and continued population growth increases the potential for these storms to cause death and destruction; and
- WHEREAS: In 2014, severe weather events in Georgia included two snow and ice storms, tornadoes, and flooding, causing nearly $8 million in damages throughout the state; and
- WHEREAS: Severe weather events in Georgia have killed at least 361 people since 1978, injured countless others, and caused substantial property damage; and
- WHEREAS: It is critical that effective public education programs concerning severe weather systems and preparedness procedures continue for the benefit of all Georgians; and
- WHEREAS: Departments and agencies of the local, state, and federal governments, along with volunteer and professional associations, faith-based organizations, the private sector, elected leaders, and news media, are committed to informing Georgia citizens about safety and severe weather preparedness procedures so that they may better protect themselves, their families, and their fellow citizens; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Georgia launched "Ready Georgia," a public awareness campaign to help Georgia's citizens understand the importance of emergency preparedness and provide them with the tools necessary to be prepared in the event of weather-related or other types of emergencies; now
- THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim the week of February 2-6, 2015, as SEVERE WEATHER PREPAREDNESS WEEK in Georgia and encourage our citizens to become more aware of severe weather safety measures and to participate in the various awareness programs scheduled during the week, such as Family Preparedness Day on Monday, February 2, and the Statewide Tornado Drill on Wednesday, February 4.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 22nd day of January in the year of our Lord two thousand fifteen.
