

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

CASE MANAGEMENT WEEK

- WHEREAS: The history of case management dates back to the early 20th century when nurses and social workers first began to coordinate services throughout the public sector; and
- WHEREAS: Case managers collaborate with agencies and organizations to provide assessment, planning, facilitation, care coordination, evaluation, options, and resources to those in need; and
- WHEREAS: Case managers utilize best practices to advocate and help meet the comprehensive health needs of individuals and families across the state; and
- WHEREAS: Case management plays a vital role in ensuring that health care funding is used efficiently, allowing providers to focus on favorable outcomes for patients; and
- WHEREAS: Case Management Week offers an opportunity to recognize the case managers who work hard to improve the health and well-being of Georgia's citizens; now
- THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim October 8-14, 2017, as CASE MANAGEMENT WEEK in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 4th day of October in the year of our Lord two thousand seventeen.
