BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

WHEREAS: Children are critical to Georgia’s future success, prosperity, and quality of life. While children are the state’s most valuable resource, they are also the most vulnerable population. Children have a right to be safe and a right to to thrive, learn, and grow in an environment that fosters healthy development; and

WHEREAS: Child abuse and neglect can be prevented by supporting and strengthening Georgia’s families, thus preventing the far-reaching effects of maltreatment and providing the opportunity for children to develop healthy, trusting family bonds, and consequently, building the foundations of communities; and

WHEREAS: Effectively intervening in the lives of children threatened by abuse is a shared responsibility, and Georgia’s citizens must come together so that the voices of our children are heard by all. We all must work together to see that our communities are extending helping hands to children and families in need; and

WHEREAS: Effective child abuse prevention strategies succeed because of partnerships created among citizens, human service agencies, schools, faith communities, health care providers, civic organizations, law enforcement agencies, and the business community; and

WHEREAS: By providing a safe and nurturing environment for our children free of violence, abuse, and neglect, we can support Georgia’s children as they grow to their full potential as the next generation of leaders, helping to secure the future of this state and our nation; now

THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim April 2017 as CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 19th of January in the year of our Lord two thousand seventeen.
